Jason Goudlock is now on his fifth request to be paroled, so it goes without saying that he's pulling out all the stops. LeBron James was 8 years old when Goudlock was convicted for aggravated robbery and felonious assault, so on his fifth attempt to the Ohio State Parole Board, he enlisted the help of LeBron to gain his freedom.

"I urge you to retire #248-561 because I have history to make."

"On the lighter side, I would truly like to witness in person LeBron James' pursuit of an NBA championship for my beloved hometown."

Goudlock isn't scheduled to be released until 2026, so needless to say, LeBron's years with the NBA will be over.
