CLEVELAND - An Ohio inmate is trying to get out of jail so he can "witness" LeBron James' return.

Jason Goudlock, 39, has been behind bars since 1994 for felonious assault and aggravated robbery charges in Cuyahoga County

According to NewsChannel5's partner the Akron Beacon Journal \(http://www.ohio.com/news/break-news/ohio-inmate-to-parole-board-free-me-to-witness-lebron-james-chase-title-1.529765\), Goudlock wrote to the parole board asking to be released so he can watch LeBron and the Cavs chase a championship.

Prison officials will hear his request later this month.
